

Onyx Pro Summary

ERP package for large business corporations in all different sectors.

- The first version was issued in 2002. The researches of its development and success continued; and it is now in the version 6.0 /2015.
- It has been developed by using Oracle Database and a number of techniques which formed its flexibility and meeting all what customers need.
- It is regarded as an integrated package of ERP Solutions. Some of its modules can be used according to each enterprise need.
- It supports multiple options in linking the headquarter to its branches in a number of techniques with high sufficiency.
- It consists of 25 modules which can be accessed by user through Log-in window. These modules is classified to 8 sections: Management and configuration, General Ledger, Inventory, Customers (Accounts Receivable), Vendors (Accounts Payable), Human Resources, specialized modules, and other helping modules.
- POS, which is specified for direct sale in supermarkets and retail shops, is the most important external components of Onyx Pro.
- It can be linked with MRP, Shareholders, and Money Transfer & Exchange and any external system.
- A small version of Onyx Pro (Onyx Light) has been developed with specialized functions for companies branches.
- It supports four languages: English, Arabic, French and Turkish. It is installed in the language that customer wants.
- Elite of successful businessmen have decided to use Onyx Pro. It is also used efficiently by more than 4000 business enterprises in the Middle East.
- Onyx Mobile makes the new in Onyx Pro to follow up your business from your mobile.
- To see the new in Onyx Pro 2015 version, move to Totally New.

Why Onyx Pro?

- 1 To achieve overall business management results, consolidated strategic information, financial percentages, and statistics on the level of multiple companies and their branches.
- 2 To enhance organizational work and managerial regulation's accuracy via granting privileges to Onyx Pro users according to their tasks in the organization chart.
- 3 To control internal transactions and users, audit documents, procedures and report, and integrate performance between staff through quick internal communication messages.
- 4 To suit the growth and adversity of activities and projects and meet any privacies in the transactions of purchases, sales, or managerial regulation according to local and international standards.
- 5 To build-up absolute confidence with customers via accurate reports about their transactions and facilitating the process of meeting their orders by strength of database and Onyx Pro modules.